ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS' SEALED
MOTION FOR CONSOLIDATION (DOC. # 13)

Before the court is plaintiffs' motion for consolidation of the instant case with nine related cases or—alternatively—to reassign this case to Judge Roberts as a companion to other, older cases on her docket. All of the other courts to consider this request have denied the motion for the reasons that they are without the authority to order the consolidation, as the other cases are assigned to different courts, or order reassignment absent the consent of Judge Roberts.<sup>1</sup>

While it appears that there are many potential benefits of a limited pre-trial consolidation, there are alternate ways of scheduling discovery and motion deadlines in this matter in order to realize the benefits of pretrial activities in related matters. Given
